Sophia R. Nelson

Fort Worth, TX 76110 • sophianelson252@gmail.com • + 1 (253) 343-8322

EDUCATION

Texas Christian University Expected Graduation May 2026
Bachelor of Arts in English and Writing & Rhetoric 3.9 GPA

University of Westminster London, England, UK
Semester Abroad Spring 2024

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Global Financial Crimes Division (GFCD) Analyst – MUFG Bank, Ltd. Irving, TX June 2025 - Present

- Support GFCD Operations and Global Sanctions leadership through strategic deliverables and high-priority ad hoc initiatives directed by senior leadership. Act as a liaison between leadership and analysts, strengthening communication, knowledge-sharing, and team engagement initiatives.
- Edit and refine executive-level communications while analyzing and synthesizing complex regulatory materials into clear, actionable documentation. Leverage AI tools to streamline written outputs and improve workflow efficiency.
- Designed and implemented a six-page global questionnaire and launched two Microsoft Teams platforms with automated workflows, improving standardized data collection and cross-regional collaboration across APAC, EMEA, U.S., and Japan.
- Authored a 100-page global writing and formatting guide and personally developed and delivered training programs, including a bi-weekly global sanctions training and department-wide writing workshops for 100+ professionals.

Editorial Intern – The Nominate Group Dallas, TX Jan. 2026 - Present

- Support the CEO and founder through high-priority editorial and operational assignments.
- Edit and evaluate book proposals and manuscripts (2–3 per week), delivering substantive and line-level revisions along with detailed editorial analyses, including summaries, market positioning, and critical feedback.
- Collaborate with the editorial team to revise and polish manuscript content, strengthening clarity, structure, and narrative cohesion.
- Consolidated nine contact databases into a single Excel system (7,000+ contacts), applying data cleaning, standardization, and organizational logic to improve accessibility and usability.

Exhibition Host – Amon Carter Museum of American Art Fort Worth, TX May 2025 - Present

- Engage visitors through guided introductions to exhibitions, delivering clear and accessible overviews of artistic themes, historical context, and curatorial intent.
- Provide in-depth discussions on artworks, incorporating visual analysis, artist background, and cultural context to enhance visitor understanding and engagement.

Library Assistant – Mary Couts Burnett Library, TCU Fort Worth, TX Jan. 2023 – Jan. 2026

- Help patrons check in and out materials, with research, material evaluation, and sourcing across digital and physical collections using online cataloging systems.
- ensuring proper placement and accurate system documentation according to the Library of Congress classification standard.

AWARDS & HONORS

- TCU Creative Writing Awards (2025-2026): 1st Place (Poetry, Creative Nonfiction), Runner-Up (New Media), 2nd Place (Poetry), 3rd Place (Hybrid/Experimental)
- AddRan College Student Research & Creative Symposium (2025): Outstanding Presentation, Spanish & Hispanic Studies
- Scholarships: AddRan English Heritage Endowed Scholarship; TCU Dean's Scholarship; AddRan Academic Achievement Scholarship

INVOLVEMENT

- Member of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority Aug. 2022 - Present
- Editor for Scribble Frogs Writing Club Aug. 2024 – Dec. 2025
- Reading Partner Tutor for Dallas ISD Fall 2024

SKILLS

- Writing & Editing (technical writing, copyediting, proofreading)
- Programming & Technical (Python, JavaScript, HTML, CSS, GitHub)
- Microsoft Office Suite (Word, PowerPoint, Excel)